

Application for PH 203: French Philosophy in Context

Admission to the class is by consent of the instructors. Please complete and return this application to Dennis McEnerney, either via email (dennismc@coloradocollege.edu) or to his box in the Philosophy Department office (131 Armstrong Hall). He and Jonathan Lee will review the applications as soon as possible.

Your Name:

Anticipated Graduation Date:

Major: Minor (if any):

Faculty Advisor's Name:

Home Town:

Citizenship:

Do you have a passport? If so, what is its date of expiration?

Have you ever travelled to France? If so, for how long and for what purpose?

Have you ever studied abroad or been on away blocks in the U.S.? Where and with what faculty members or programs?

What interests you about this course and its topic?

What courses have you taken in philosophy, history, French, or other programs that might prepare you for this course?

Do you have any facility in speaking or reading French? If so, please describe your abilities or any courses or programs you have completed. Note: no knowledge of French is required. However, knowing whether students have facility in the language will help us to plan the course.